

Advancing Equity: Graduate Education Scholarship Application Form and Instructions (2023)

The purpose of this scholarship is to promote the diversification of the larger archival community by providing financial support to students of color pursuing graduate archival education. The award is given to applicants who demonstrate excellent potential for scholastic and personal achievement and who manifest a commitment to the archives profession. Applicants must self-identify as being from historically underrepresented groups. Those from Black/African, American Indian, Asian or Pacific Islander, Middle Eastern or North African, or Latinx descent are strongly encouraged to apply.

The scholarship recipient will receive a $1500 cash award, a one-year membership in the Society of California Archivists, and complimentary registration for the AGM held in the year in which the scholarship is awarded, and recognition at the AGM Awards Ceremony.

Each applicant must submit the following items electronically no later than Monday, January 30, 2023:

1. A completed application form
2. A brief (500 word) essay describing the applicant's goals in the archival profession, with a statement of self-identification meeting the eligibility requirements
3. A supplementary résumé
4. A letter of recommendation from someone familiar with the applicant's goals, background, education, and interest in the archival profession

Please complete this form and email it along with supporting documentation to the Awards Committee Chair (awards@calarchivists.org) with the subject line Graduate Education Scholarship.

Applicants will be notified no later than February 27, 2023 of the final decision of the SCA Awards Committee regarding the Advancing Equity: Graduate Education Scholarship.

More information about this scholarship can be found in section 3-3 of the SCA Handbook.
